Group Booking Procedure

The Bond;

- In order to hold rooms for your group booking we do require a $500 bond.
- This will hold all apartments booked for an allotted time before individual guests need to reserve their room and pay their own deposit as required.
- This will be kept until departure at which stage it may be used to cover the cost of any incidentals that may have occurred during your groups stay—damage to the complex and/or rooms, call-outs or disruptions caused by guests within your wedding party, or in the event of a cancellation or where a guest has booked for two nights, but only shows for one.
- Should there be no costs as above, the bond will be refunded or put towards the cost of your accommodation.
- Use of the bond will be at the manager's discretion and special circumstances will be taken into consideration.
- If the group booking is cancelled at any time after the release date or there are no named & confirmed rooms as of the release date, the group booking will effectively be cancelled and the $500 bond will be retained in full by management in order to cover administration charges and costs of possible lost revenue for those dates. Our standard cancellation policy will apply to all individually reserved rooms within the group.

Rooms Held & Guest Reservations;

- We require the date you expect to distribute your wedding invites.
- We will hold the rooms you have requested until a month after invitations have been sent. The number of rooms you chose to reserve should be a close estimate to the number of guests you think may require accommodation.
- After this time any unnamed rooms may be released from your group booking. We will email you to keep you up-dated on how many rooms have been booked and by whom. This allows you time to encourage guests who haven't yet booked to do so.
- Due to the unique nature of individual requirements it is easier if we deal with your guests directly for the purpose of booking individual apartments.
- Bookings are confirmed on receipt of a one night deposit and is done so directly through the guests making the reservation.

It would be appreciated at this time if you could include a couple of sentences informing guests that accommodation has been held with us and detailing our contact information.

You will be given a group reservation number and you may like to advise guests of this when they come to make their booking.

Please read the full 'terms and conditions' on the following page and do not hesitate in contacting us if you have any questions. Once you are happy to go ahead with making a group booking with us, please sign and date the Terms and Conditions page and forward us a copy.

Terms and Conditions

Onetangi Beach Apartments Terms and Conditions for a Group Wedding Booking:

1. To reserve a number of apartments for making a block wedding booking, a $500 bond is required. Please ensure you have read and fully understand the Group Booking Procedure on the previous page before signing these 'terms and conditions'. If the group booking is cancelled at any time after the release date, the $500 bond will be retained by management in order to cover administration charges and costs of possible lost revenue for those dates.
 2. Individual Guest Bookings - Deposits are required on all apartments at the managers discretion, but at least 2 months prior to their arrival.
If the Bride and Groom are booking and paying deposits on behalf of individuals within the group; they will then be the contact for that reservation and will be liable for any cancellation costs should they occur . Individual cancellation policy as follows:

Security/Noise Control

Onetangi Beach Apartments has a zero tolerance policy towards excessive noise, rowdy/drunken behavior or aggression.

We have security on call 24 hours for uncontrollable behavior and noise control complaints. Management will address the problem in the first instance and will advise Security/Noise Control if the disturbance does not cease.

There will be a $150 charge for every time Security/Noise Control are called to the situation.

This will be charged to the apartment where the disturbance is coming from , plus any other apartments of involved guests ($150 per apartment). Should the guests refuse to pay the charge, this will be deducted from the $500 bond.

Noise control is run by Auckland City Council. Their definition of excessive noise is as follows: Any noise that is under human control and of such a nature as to unreasonably interfere with the peace, comfort, and convenience of any person (other than a person in or at the place from which the noise is being emitted) .

Examples of excessive noise may include noise emitted from stereos, musical instruments, a person or people etc. Noise control officials have the power to seize any equipment and can also enforce fines. For more information please ask a member of staff for the 'Auckland City Council Excessive Noise Guide'.

Onetangi Beach Apartment asks that you please respect our other guests and neighbors by keeping noise to a minimum after 10pm.

If you would like to make a noise complaint during your stay you will be able to find the on site manager's phone number in the information folder in each apartment , or on the office doors.
